

1997 Second Team

Jocelyn Parisi

In 1997, the soccer team had several firsts. Not only did it advance to the playoffs for the first time in school history, but a Bulldog was named all-America when Jocelyn Parisi was named to the NSCAA second-team all-America list following Truman's postseason run.

That year, Parisi moved forward from the midfield where she played during her freshman and sophomore seasons. She scored 15 points on four goals and seven assists during her first two seasons. As a junior, Parisi posted career-highs in every category.

She ended her career in 1998 with 76 games played, 156 shots, nine goals, 19 assists and 37 points. Her 19 career assists tied her for then-fifth all-time at Truman, and Parisi's 156 shots marked the fourth-highest career total by a Bulldog. Parisi was tied for second among Truman career leaders in games played and sat ninth in points at the end of her career.

2001 Second Team

Emily Huyck

Emily Huyck was named an NSCAA second-team all-American in 2001 after leading the nation with an 0.38 goals against average. She shut out a Truman record of 43 opponents from 1998-01.

Huyck played nearly 5,870 minutes in goal for the 'Dogs during her tenure, the second-most ever by a Bulldog goalkeeper. Unfortunately, she saw limited action as a freshman behind another outstanding Truman netminder, Jenny Miller.

Huyck allowed just eight goals in her final season, but limited opponents to seven goals in 1999, tying the school record set by Miller the previous season.

Huyck left her name in many places in the Truman, MIAA and NCAA record books, and shares the Division II standard for single season solo shutout percentage (0.74) after holding 14 of 19 teams scoreless in 1999.

2001 Third Team
2002 Second Team

Jennifer Buscher

Jennifer Buscher became the team's first two-time all-American at the conclusion of the 2002 campaign when she was named the NSCAA's second-team.

She was named a third-team all-America in 2001. A defender, Buscher helped the 'Dogs make the NCAA tournament her final two seasons, and was an important cog in the Truman defense that led the nation with a 0.38 goals against average and allowed just 4.4 shots on goal per game and eight goals all season in 2001. Buscher also assisted in setting the school's team record for shutouts that season as the Bulldogs held 15 foes to a nil score in '01.

After missing the 2000 season with an injury, Buscher made up for lost time by helping the 'Dogs reach the NCAA Division II postseason tournament for the second time in the University's history, and their first-ever chance to host an NCAA game.

2003 First Team
2004 First Team

Sara Murray

The only first-team all-American in school history, Murray repeated the honor in 2004 while leading the Bulldogs to an unbeaten regular season, sixth consecutive MIAA title and fourth-straight NCAA tournament appearance.

Besides owning all of the Truman and MIAA scoring marks, she was named the female winner of the Ken B. Jones Award. The award is given to the top male and female student-athlete regardless of sport in the conference. She was the first soccer player and first Truman female student-athlete to receive the honor.

She was a four-time first-team all-conference and all-region selection as well as freshman of the year in 2001 and MVP in 2003.

Murray was also a two-time second-team academic all-American.

She remains only the eighth player in Div. II to record 40 goals and 40 assists in a career.

Sara Murray and Clint Prange (Northwest Missouri) were the 2004 Ken B. Jones winners from the MIAA. Murray is one of three Bulldogs to win the award joining Jason Reinberg (2000) and Sarah Shearman (2006).

2004 Second Team

Anna Sonderman

Anna Sonderman was a steady force in the Bulldog midfield for four years and was rewarded her senior year by being named to the second-team all-America squad by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. In 2004, Sonderman was third on the team in points with 20 on six goals and eight assists.

A three-time all-region pick and first-team all-conference selection, Sonderman was a focal point of a team that outscored their opponents 45-9 in 2004, including 15 shutouts.

Sonderman finished her career ranked third all-time in assists, eighth in points and ninth in goals. During her four years on the pitch, Sonderman helped contribute to 55 shutouts, an overall record of 71-9-5, four MIAA championships and four NCAA post-season appearances.

2004 Third Team

Lauren Davis

Lauren Davis followed the tradition of strong goalkeeping for the Bulldogs under Coach Mike Cannon as she became the second Bulldog netminder to earn all-American honors in the program history after a stellar 2004 season.

Of the 22 games played that year, Davis recorded a school and conference single-season record 15 shutouts. She finished fourth in Div. II with a goals-against average of 0.40. Davis allowed only nine goals in 22 games and went six consecutive contests without allowing a tally.

She was named first-team all-conference for the second straight year and first-team all-region for the first time in leading the Bulldogs to their sixth-straight conference title and fourth straight trip to the NCAA Division II national tournament.

2009 Third Team

Katie Reuck

Katie Reuck became the seventh Bulldog to earn all-American honors following her senior season of her three-year Truman career. She scored 20 goals after transferring from Rockhurst (Mo.) University prior to her sophomore season. She ranked 10th all-time in Bulldog scoring history and finished with 50 career points, adding ten assists to her 20 goals scored.

As a senior, she finished third on the squad with five goals and added three assists on the way to picking up first-team all-MIAA and second-team Daktronics all-region honors. Reuck was named to the all-MIAA first-team each of her three seasons in Kirksville and was a unanimous choice by conference coaches this season.

Reuck was the only player from the MIAA and was just one of three from the South Central region to earn all-American status in the 2009 season.

2015 Third Team

Alexis Heffernan

Alexis Heffernan was named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America's third-team following the 2015 season.

For her career, Heffernan will leave her mark on the program's all-time goals, points, and total shots categories, as she scored 26 goals (eighth all-time), tallied 64 points (ninth all-time), and took 228 shots (fourth all-time) in 78 contests. In total, 14 of her 26 goals were game-winners, including five of her seven this season. She was named to the Great Lakes Valley Conference first-team for the second straight season before adding both first-team all-region accolades by both the NSCAA and the Conference Commissioner's Association (CCA).

Heffernan was named one of Truman's Outstanding Senior Student Athletes.

2016 Second Team
D2CCA

Katie Mattingly

Katie Mattingly became the third Truman backstop to earn All-America honors as she garnered second team selections from the Division 2 Conference Commissioners Association, voted on by Sports Information Directors.

Mattingly broke the Truman record with 15.5 shutouts in the 2016 season and tied the record for fewest goals allowed in a season with seven. Mattingly was 15-2-4 with a 0.32 goals against average and a .916 save percentage. She was named the Great Lakes Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year and first team all-GLVC.

In addition, Mattingly earned CoSIDA Academic All-American honors for her performance in the classroom. She joins only Sara Murray (2004 & 2003) as the only player to earn both Academic and 'On Field' All-America honors in the same season.
